Unpacking the principles of the Reggio Emilia approach

Dear Friends of REANZ,

The Auckland network invites you to join us to explore one of the key principles of the Reggio Emilia approach, in theory and in practice, in a two-part series:

Participation, relationships and the enriching role of educational documentation

Part 1 :

Wednesday 24 July

7-9pm

Faculty of Education, University of Auckland, Epsom

Dr Anne Meade will unpack the principle of Participation through a Reggio Emilia lens. Anne Meade has over 40 years' experience as a leading educational researcher and policy advisor, author and educator, and is also co-founder of Daisies Early Education and Care Centre in Wellington and the Patron of REANZ.

Part 2 :

Wednesday 14 August

7-9pm

Peacocks Stonefields (31 Purchas Hill Drive, Stonefields)

Prue Crarer and the team at Peacocks Stonefields will discuss how they interpret and implement the principle of Participation within the context of Aotearoa New Zealand. Prue Crarer has many years' experience as an educator and pedagogical leader inspired by the thinking of Reggio Emilia, and is a long-standing Trustee of REANZ.

We ask that participants commit to attending both evenings.

Cost : $50pp includes both evenings
