

Two-part symposium: 1 July & 14 September 2017

THE LANGUAGE OF LIGHT AND SHADOW PUPPETS

Come and experience how light and shadow can be used as an expressive 'language' by children and teachers. The workshop will involve a hands-on art component where participants will use Māori mythology as the provocation for their own creative story making and telling.

"The Language of Light and Shadow Puppets" will be presented by Lisa Terreni, Senior Lecturer, Victoria University, author and editor of the ecARTnz online magazine, with an introduction by Dr Anne Meade.

Dates: Saturday, 1 July, 9.00am to 1.00pm at the Thistle Hall, cnr Cuba and Arthur Streets, Te Aro.

Thursday, 14 September, 5.45 to 8.45pm, Te Rito Maioha/Early Childhood NZ, 191A Thorndon Quay

Costs: $125 (incl GST), includes materials, substantial Saturday morning tea, and light evening meal

Register now. Spaces are very limited.
